Paul Ziebarth

Superintendent Paul Ziebarth was a respected member of the QPS and the broader community. As an esteemed colleague of the Executive Challenge Academy alumni, Paul took pride in maintaining a personal and passionate contribution to the continued growth of the ECA. He was part of the design team for the Masterclass and The Hague Live Case Study programs which were introduced in 2016. Sadly, Paul passed away before he was able to experience the results of his hard work and commitment.

In deciding how to best recognise and perpetuate Paul's leadership work, we considered a number of possibilities. His closest colleagues reminded us of Paul's dedication to what he called "the young folk". In honour of his commitment to early career leaders, we now commit the Foundations for Leadership Program in Paul's memory by offering two scholarships in his name.

What is the Executive Challenge Academy Foundations in Leadership Paul Ziebarth Memorial Program?

This short course gives participants an opportunity to discover your own leadership style, and learn how and why that impacts on teams, organisations and community issues. You will network with peers from across different industries and sectors and learn how to open up to positive change, engage the whole system, and achieve measurable results. You will create a powerful collaborative learning lab which will foster deep personal insights, enhance personal skills and increase your overall leadership effectiveness.

Who should apply?

- You have started your leadership journey or want to; and have a burning desire to develop yourself in order to create change in your organisation and community.
- You are currently employed or volunteer for a community focused organisation or group who are committed to professional and leadership development.
- You want to know about and practice inclusive and participative change leadership skills.
- You can see yourself as part of a learning community of leaders who see the need for collaboration rather than competition.
